

Mira Mitrova

Contemporary Expressionist

Chasing the Sublime

Raw. Real. Expressive. Freedom

Artist Statement

Painting ignites a primal spark within me, connecting me to the ancient human impulse to express ourselves through visual language.

I'm not drawn to the familiar or the representational.

Instead, I find exhilaration in the unknown, in crafting new worlds that emerge from the depths of my imagination.

Freedom is the lifeblood of my artistic practice. I embrace diverse approaches, allowing me to explore the full spectrum of my creativity. My work is driven by a desire to evoke emotion, to leave an indelible mark on the viewer.

I delve into the raw, unfiltered essence of human experience. My work is a constant visual exploration, seeking out the subliminal and the surreal. I don't aim to mirror reality; rather, I strive to create something that feels both familiar and utterly foreign.

My process is fluid, ever-evolving. I don't adhere to rigid techniques or predetermined outcomes. I embrace spontaneity, allowing ideas to flow between different works. The past informs the present, and the future remains open to endless possibilities.

Inspired by the expressive power of Abstract Expressionism and the rich tapestry of personal experiences, I create art that resonates with the times. By embracing vulnerability and allowing the unexpected to emerge, I hope to forge a unique and enduring artistic voice.
